

Saumik Das

Saumik Das is a passionate bonsai artist, former Ambassador of South Asia Bonsai Federation (SABF) and member of Indian Bonsai Association, New Delhi. It has been for more than 20 years that he's practicing this art of Bonsai.

He has conducted demos and workshops on both online and offline mode, collaborating with many bonsai clubs all over the country. He has also conducted demos at international level. He has been a mentor to almost 600+ students.

In 2015, he transformed his passion for bonsai into a beautiful Bonsai farm, "Grow Green Bonsai", where he teaches this amazing art to many learners. It is a hub for all the nature lovers & bonsai enthusiasts. He also introduced the concept of Vertical Penjing as well as stone carving of ancient structures in India. He has specialized in making Penjings and loves to do rock arrangements. His creations are a blend of his out of the box imagination & inspiration from natural landscapes and ancient structures.

Several articles and interviews about his journey were published from time to time by many leading media platforms like, Hindustan Times, Indian Express, Better India, Dainik Bhaskar and many more.