Yap Choo Kham (叶卓庆),

Advisor and founding member of the Kuantan Bonsai Association, embarked on his bonsai journey in 1993. Over the decades, his artistry has flourished, producing many distinguished bonsai creations that garnered prizes at local competitions and earned admiration within the community. His dedication and vision have been instrumental in nurturing the growth of bonsai culture in Malaysia, particularly in Kuantan and the wider Pahang region, where his contributions remain deeply valued. Today, he continues to serve the bonsai fraternity with distinction as a respected judge and active member of MBSS, MPASC, and MBJO, embodying both the spirit of tradition and the pursuit of excellence in bonsai.
