Ng Hock Soon

Residing in Penang, Ng Hock Soon is a familiar and respected figure in Malaysia's bonsai community. With over 30 years of experience as a bonsai artist, he has dedicated his life to cultivating living art that inspires and amazes audiences across the country.

His journey has taken him throughout Malaysia, where he has participated in numerous local bonsai competitions, earning multiple prizes that testify to his mastery and dedication. Beyond competitions, Ng has showcased his artistry at events nationwide, becoming a household name among bonsai enthusiasts.

Ng's reputation extends internationally. He was honored with an invitation to represent Malaysia as a demonstrator at ASPAC Bali in 2025, a prestigious platform that gathers bonsai masters from around the world. Together with the Siam Bonsai Club, he frequently travels to Thailand by invitation, serving as both a judge and demonstrator—an acknowledgment of his standing as a Malaysian artist of distinction.

In 2024, Ng broadened his horizons further by attending the China Penjing Exhibition, an experience that opened his mind to new perspectives on the bonsai world and deepened his appreciation for the global diversity of the art.

What sets Ng apart is his unique style of bonsai expression. His creations embody both technical mastery and artistic soul, leaving lasting impressions on those who witness his work. For the Malaysian bonsai community, Ng Hock Soon is more than an artist—he is a cultural ambassador, carrying the spirit of Malaysian bonsai onto the global stage.
