Amsarizan Amran,

born in June 1984 in Bandar Tenggara, Kulai, Johor, first encountered the art of bonsai in 2004. By 2005, his passion had grown into a serious pursuit, and since then he has remained deeply committed to the bonsai world. His daily life is closely intertwined with bonsai—selling, shaping, and providing services for bonsai and landscape projects—reflecting not only his livelihood but also his devotion to the craft. Amsarizan is particularly drawn to creative, extreme, and tropical bonsai styles, which allow him to express bold ideas and push artistic boundaries. Through his dedication and distinctive approach, he has built a reputation as a passionate bonsai enthusiast whose work embodies both innovation and respect for tradition, inspiring fellow hobbyists and enriching the bonsai community in Malaysia.
