Chong Kiek Chiun (張克勤)

Chong Kiek Chiun embarked on his Bonsai journey in 1996, steadily building a reputation as one of Sarawak's most accomplished practitioners. His dedication and artistry have been recognized through five gold medals earned across prestigious Bonsai tournaments throughout the state, a testament to both his technical mastery and creative vision.

Over the years, Chong has cultivated a wide range of species—including Wrightia Religiosa, Jaboticaba, and Cherry Barbados—demonstrating not only versatility but also a profound understanding of horticultural diversity.

Beyond his personal achievements, Chong has played a vital role in nurturing the Bonsai community, serving as a committed member of the Sarawak Bonsai Association (SBA) working committee since 1998. His contributions have helped shape the growth of the art form in the region, inspiring enthusiasts and elevating the standards of Bonsai cultivation across Sarawak.
